Palm Sunday was joyous; a celebration of Jesus as King. Never before has the music been more beautiful. Sherry Richardson led the choir in a performance of the beautiful cantata “One Sacrifice,” and Amy Lindeman performed a solo as the Invitation Hymn, “There’s Room

At the Cross For You.” Every member of the choir spent many hours rehearsing the cantata that told the story of Jesus’ last week on the earth, Holy Week. The final anthem of the cantata, “One Sacrifice” will be performed on Easter Sunday.

SPECIAL EASTER OFFERING SERVES CHRIST THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

On Easter Sunday we celebrate the good news of Christ’s resurrection. As Christians in today’s world we see chaos and despair all around us. Only the love of Christ offers hope to our world. The Easter offering makes possible the presentation of this love to people here at home and around the world. Please be generous.

PAULA WRIGHT TO SHARE HER EXPERIENCES IN HONDURAN MINISTRY

We first met Paula Wright back in January and February when her husband, Garry Wright, led us in the study of the Sermon on the Mount. At our Family Dinner, Paula told me she was leading a group from Kingsway Christian Church to do a “hands-on” ministry in Honduras. She asked if any from Central would like to accompany them.

Wednesday night at our Central Family Dinner Paula will share the story of the numerous mission trips she has led Kingsway in. Please be part of the Dinner.
